

The adventures of Captain Kirk "Special Edition "continued1

There is no reason to be afraid, all these ships and spaceships simply go to the mega POP ROCK festival in "Stonestock" or more than 500,000 festival-goers from the steel world of Carcassonne will celebrate for 4 days. Of course, it makes a monster mess, but nothing very bad.

Batman convinced Joe Cooking of his talents as a drummer and saxophonist spider-man. In Edgard's aircraft they go to the festival.

-Batman! I took your bag from the Professor with the big box flashing.

-We'll see about that later, Edgard!
For the moment we have to find a parking space.

Our two heroes arrive at the scene of an accident involving a ship and Edgard's aircraft.

-What have you done now, Edgard?

-Nothing, I was training in the cockpit at the balloon throw!

At the same time, not far from there, the spies of the great Anubis met Agent Vlad, so that he could help them in their mission.

-blabla-blabla- toutankhamon-blablabla-contract! Blabla-OK

-A moron with his aircraft came at me, fortunately, no harm done! I'm Joe Cooking, I have to open the festival in an hour, I don't have any more musicians. Are you a musician?

So our two heroes are opening the festival with Joe Cooking.

Curious characters have crept into the audience.
